

SUMMER COURSES

BOOKING FORM - 2019

FASHION DESIGN

Our Fashion Design courses are excellent for the person who wants to learn how to construct their own patterns and sew their own designs, beginning with skirts, trousers, tops or a simple dress. Further modules can be taken according to the student's requirements, to build up skills and techniques. These Fashion Design courses are flexible to suit your preference.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED

An A4 pad, pen, pencil, eraser, plastic set-square (approx. 28cm on longest side), tape measure, scissors, dressmaking pins, tracing wheel, sellotape. Pattern making paper and bobbins can be purchased at the Grafton Academy. Fabric etc is required for making up project.

DRESSMAKING

The Dressmaking course is perfect for the person who wishes to learn how to use a commercial pattern. Beginners are advised to choose a simple pattern of a skirt, trousers or simple dress to enable them to learn basic sewing techniques, while students at a more advanced level may choose a more complicated pattern e.g; suit or coat.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED

Commercial pattern to your nearest measurements, fabric, tape measure, dressmaking pins, fabric scissors, paper scissors, hand sewing needles, threads, seam ripper, any other requirements of the pattern, e.g. a zip, lining etc.

Teaching is by individual attention within a classroom environment to cater for different skill levels from beginning to advance. Ideal for beginners to advanced, young or mature.

No previous experience is required. Please note that courses require materials.
