

FASHION DESIGN SHORT COURSES

BOOKING FORM 2019 - 2020

- EVENING FASHION DESIGN
- SATURDAY FASHION DESIGN
- SHORT INTENSIVE & TRIAL FASHION DESIGN
- WEEKDAY FASHION DESIGN

Our Fashion Design courses are excellent for the person who wants to learn how to construct their own patterns and sew their own designs, beginning with skirts, trousers, tops or a simple dress. Further modules can be taken according to the student's requirements, to build up skills and techniques. These Fashion Design courses are flexible to suit your preference.

Teaching is by individual attention within a classroom environment to cater for different skill levels from beginning to advanced.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED

An A4 pad, pen, pencil, eraser, plastic set-square (approx. 28cm on longest side), tape measure, scissors, threads, dressmaking pins, tracing wheel, sellotape. Pattern making paper and bobbins can be purchased at the Grafton Academy. Fabric etc is required for making up project.

For the fashion illustration classes you will need plain white paper, set-square, pencil and sharpener for your first class. Your tutor will then advise on any other materials required for further classes.

Once a student begins their block of classes they must be taken in succession. Regrettably, missed classes cannot be made up for any reason In certain circumstances the office may allow for absence if agreed at the time of booking, thereafter we ask that students do not request to carry forward classes as this may cause embarrassment.

Absence from classes will result in the total loss of that class. Please note that no fees are refundable or transferable and missed classes cannot be made up.
