WEEKDAY DRESSMAKING

The dressmaking courses are perfect for the person who wishes to learn how to use a commercial pattern. Ideal for beginners to advanced, young or mature.

No previous experience is required. Teaching is by individual attention within a classroom environment to cater for different skill levels from beginners to advanced. Beginners are advised to choose a simple pattern of a skirt, trousers or simple dress to enable them to learn the basic sewing techniques, while students at a more advanced level may choose a more complicated pattern e.g; suit or coat. This course is suitable for beginners and the more advanced as classes are small. Please note that course requires materials.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED

Commercial pattern to your nearest measurements, fabric, tape measure, dressmaking pins, fabric scissors, paper scissors, hand sewing needles, threads, seam ripper, any other requirements of the pattern, e.g; zip, buttons, lining etc. NEEDED ON FIRST DAY

Once a student begins their block of classes they must be taken in succession. Regrettably, missed classes cannot be made up for any reason In certain circumstances the office may allow for absence if agreed at the time of booking, thereafter we ask that students do not request to carry forward classes as this may cause embarrassment.

Absence from classes will result in the total loss of that class. Please note that no fees are refundable or transferable and missed classes cannot be made up.
